

Tom Yoder Biography

Tom Yoder is a musician whose style is rooted in bluegrass and contemporary folk music. Add a little rock edge, a touch of blues, sweeten with some country swing and you have a recipe for Tom's unique rootsy sound. As a mandolin and fiddle player for the Don Campbell Band he enjoyed the opportunity to perform at The Grand Old Opry in Nashville as winners of a national talent contest where he stole the show for his electrifying live performance.

“A musician who brings soul and a swinging groove to Campbell's songs.”

Bill Copeland - Nashua Telegraph

"If ever an instrument had a soul..."

Adrian Zupp - Portsmouth Herald

Some of the many artists he has performed with include: Dickie Betts (Allman Brothers), Garnet Rodgers, Peter Rowan, Travis Tritt, Johanthan Edwards, Ritchie Havens, Willie Nelson, Randy Travis and Merle Haggard.
